Thank you Pam for responding to my email,

The noise is still ongoing as of 12:40pm. I describe it as a loud repetitive whirring. All the windows of my home are closed. Similar to a jet flying overhead, but it never fades or goes away - it's constant. It gets even louder at moments.

Dear Ms. Buco—

Thank you for contacting me. Can you please provide me with any specifics about the sound? How long did it last? Is it still ongoing and a description of the sound.

Thank you,

Pam

Good Morning Pamela,

I was advised to send you an e-mail whenever the windmills are exceptionally loud. This is the case for today, 3/20/20 @8:50 am.

Regards,

Amanda Buco
