Good evening Pamela,

The Windmills are exceptionally noisy tonight as my family is trying to get to sleep and having a hard time due to the noise. It is 9:12PM. Couldn't tell you exactly how long they've been noisy but we try to put our kids down for 8 PM.

The noise is scaring our 3 little ones as the sound has bursts of louder and more intense whirring.

Tonight is a very upsetting night for us.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Amanda Buco
