Orr&Reno

Douglas L. Patch dpatch@orr-reno.com Direct Dial 603.223.9161 Direct Fax 603.223.9061 Admitted in NH and MA

October 5, 2021

Via First Class Mail and Email

Dianne Martin, Chair and Presiding Officer New Hampshire Site Evaluation Committee c/o New Hampshire Public Utilities Commission 21 South Fruit St., Suite 10 Concord, NH 03301-2429

Re: Pre-application Public Information Session Notice – Proposed Chariot Solar Project in Hinsdale, New Hampshire

Dear Ms. Martin:

On behalf of Chariot Solar, LLC, in accordance with RSA 162-H:10, I and Admin. Rule Site 201.01(c), I am providing you with a copies of the notice of a public information session scheduled to be held at the Town Hall in Hinsdale, New Hampshire at 7PM on October 18, 2021. Including copies of the notice as published in the Keene Sentinel and the Brattleboro Reformer. This is a pre-application public information session required by RSA 162-H:10, I. Chariot Solar, LLC is planning to file an application with the New Hampshire Site Evaluation Committee this winter.

Thank you for your assistance. Please let us know if you have any questions.

Sincerely. Douglas N. Patch

DLP/eac Attachments

cc: K. Allen Brooks, Sr. Assistant Attorney General, Department of Justice

3286740_1

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE SITE EVALUATION COMMITTEE

Application of Chariot Solar, LLC for Certificate of Site and Facility for a Renewable Energy Facility to be Located in the Town of Hinsdale, Cheshire County, New Hampshire

Notice of Public Information Session

Pursuant to RSA 162-H:10, Chariot Solar, LLC will hold an Open House and Public Information Session on October 18, 2021 beginning at 6:30 p.m. at the Hinsdale Town Hall, 11 Main Street, Hinsdale, New Hampshire to present information regarding a proposed 50-megawatt solar energy generation facility (the "Facility") to be located in the Town of Hinsdale and for which Chariot Solar intends to submit an Application for a Certificate of Site and Facility, pursuant to RSA 162-H:7, to the New Hampshire Site Evaluation Committee (SEC). The Open House will begin at 6:30 p.m. where project representatives will provide information concerning the project and answer questions. The Public Information Session will immediately follow at 7 p.m. and members of the public will be given an opportunity to present comments and ask questions. The Public Information Session will be transcribed. A copy of the transcript will be included with the application to the SEC. Questions about the Facility can also be directed to 561-762-5050 or Kaleigh.Crissman@nexteraenergy.com.

Nature and Location of the Proposed Facility

The Facility is proposed to be located south of Monument Road, east of NH State Route 119, west of Plain Road, and north of North Road in the Town of Hinsdale, Cheshire County, New Hampshire on private lands to be leased and/or purchased by Chariot Solar. The 50-megawatt solar Facility, consisting of photovoltaic modules, is planned to be constructed on approximately 297 acres of historically harvested forest lands adjacent to two transmission line corridors located south of Monument Road. Power generated from the Facility will be collected at the new substation and will connect to an existing National Grid 115kV electric transmission line located within the adjacent corridor.

Outbreak, two deaths at senior care site

By GREG SUKIENN Bennington Banner

BENNINGTON — A COVID-19 outbreak affecting 24 people and suspected in the deaths of two residents this month has n reported at the Ce enters been reported at the Centers for Living and Rehabilitation. The facility has reported 34 cases of COVID — Hures taff and the remainder residents — since Sept. 10, according to Dr. Trey Dobson, the chief medical officer at Southwest-ern Vermont Medical Center. That's two more than the 22 cases reported on the Ver-mont Department of Health website as of Tuesday. Centers for Living and Re-website as of Tuesday. Centers for Living and Re-habilitation, located on the campus of Southwestern Vermont Medical Center, is majority owned by Allaire Health Services of Freehold, N.J. Doctors at the facility

VERMONT NEWS IN BRIEF

Pandemic food program ending after

Pandemic tood program entities and the distributing many meals A food how program with its roots in the early days of the pandemic is ending after distributing tens of thou-sands of meals to people across Vermont. In June, the Full Plates Vermont program run by the Vermont Evedbank took ower the Parmiers to Families

In June, the Full Flacks verification program fun by Inc. Vermont Foodbank took over the Farmers to Families Food Box program that was begun by the U.S. Depart-ment of Agriculture. The original USDA program was designed to feed people left hungry by the pandemic and give those in the food industry, notably farmers, a place to sell their readults.

The food bank, working with private, state and other The loop balls, with any with privac, since to start partners, coordinated food distribution events where people's vehicles were loaded with boxes of food con-taining poultry, fruit, vegetables and dairy items. "A lot of people liked it and were getting a lot of value out of the box program," said the Foodbank's John out of the box program," said the POGODARA S JOINT Sayles. After the original program ended in May, the Ver-mont Foodbank continued with its version of the pro-gram, which has distributed 40,000 meals since June. Sayles says that dire the program ends on Thursday, people can who took advantage of it can check with the Poodbank to learn where they can get help. Wermont reported 104 new COVID-19 cases on Wednesday for a statewide total since the pandemic began of more than 33,430 cases. On Wednesday, 44 people were hospitalized with 21 m tensive care.

- The Associated Press

MONTPELIER

products

Both deaths were people in their 90s who were also in declining health, Dobson said. "It's impossible to de-termine whether COVID was causative [in their deaths] or if they tested positive at the same time," he said. All of the residents are vacre SVMC medical staff and supervised by Dobson, SVMC spokesperson Ashley Jowett

All of the residents are vac-cinated, and about 90 percent of the staff is vaccination will become a condition of em-ployment at SVMC on Oct. 31, and at Allaire on Nov. 1, Dob-son said.

son said. According to Dobson, re-cent state data listed 136 pos-itive cases in long-term cases across the state in the past seven days. These cases are seven uays. These Cases are appearing in long-term care communities because many people living in those facili-ties have underlying medical conditions. ically for monoclonal anti-body treatment, which is also keeping down the need for hospitalization, Dobson said.

A COVID-19 outbreak affecting 24 people and suspected in the deaths of two residents this month has been reported at the Centers for Living and Rehabilitation: three staff and the what we experienced" at the start of the pandemic, he said. The state Department of The state Department of in Manchester Village, with sistants. A message left in person for administrators at Equinox Terrace was not returned by press time.

Greg Sukiennik covers government and politics for Vermont News & Media. Reach him at gsukiennik@ benningtonbanner.com.

spökesperson Ashley Jowett said. The 130-bed facility serves a number of patients, from short-term rehab stays to long-term and palliative end-of-life care. Dobson said the outbreak was confined to the fourtherm community. Bouterm community. The state of affairs Dobson credits to the opwer of vaccinations — two residents have died, and one is hospitalized as of Tuesday, Dobson said. About half of the residents affected have qualified med-conditions. "The good news is the vac-cine is keeping them out of the hospital," Dobson said. "That's very different from MONTPELIER — The Republican National Committee is suing two Vermont cities for allowing noncitizens to vote on local issues in their communities.

for allowing nonctitzens to vote on local issues in their communities. The similar, but separate lawsuits against the cities of Montpelier and Winooski ask judges to declare noncit-teen voting unconstitutional. "The Vermont Constitution requires US, etizenship as a qualification of voting," said both lawsuits, written by The lawsuits, field Tueay in state courts in Burlington and Montpelier, vere brought by the national GOP, its Veremon counterpart and a number of individuals. Last November, voters in Winooski-considered to be one of the most idverse cities in northern New England — au-torized noncitizens to vote in local elections if they were in the US, legally. 2019, the city of Montpelier passed a similar measure. Earlier this year the Vermont Legis

Earlier this year the Vermont Legislature approved changes to the char-ters of the two communities allowing noncitizen voting. The initial bills were vetoed by Republican Gov. Phil Scott,

By Wilson Ring The Associated Press

remainder residents

but said a town-by-town approach to but said a town-by-town approach to municipal voling creates inconsistency in election policy. Scott reiterated that position on Tuesday when asked about the lawsuits during his weekly news conference. "We can't do this piecemeal because the newsench that Winserld because "We can't do this piecemeal because the approach that Winooski took was different from the approach that Mont-pelier had taken so we just need it all the same so there is no confusion," Scott said.

the same so there is no contribut, Scott said. It is say noncitizen voting was expanded after being approved by the people in the communities. "We have a rich history of Vermont-ers coming together in their cities, towns, and villages to work together and chart a path forward that works best for their communities." House Speaker Jill Krowinski said in June when the House overrode the gover-nor's veto.

Mont the House overroad the gover-nor's veto. Montpelier City Clerk John Odum said Tuesday he hadn't seen the law-suit, but since noncitizen voting was ap-proved by the Legislature any changes in Manchester Village, with 17 cases. But Melissa Jackson, the chief executive executive of-ficer at the Veterans' Home, said the most recent positive test was for a staff member, on Sept. 18, and that a resi-dent has not tested positive since Aug. 25 — more than a month aco.

since Aug. 25 — more than a month ago. Staff vaccinations at the Veterans' Home are at 75 per-cent of staff overall, with 60 percent of registered nurses and 36 percent of nursing as-sistants sistants

GOP sues 2 Vt. cities for noncitizen voting would have to be made by the Legislabut both vetoes were overturned by the Legislature. In his June veto message, Scott said noncitizen voting was an important is-sue that deserved further consideration

"I am not sure what is to be gained by suing the cities, the charters are now the law," Odum said.

shing includes, the definition of the state blow hie without missial constraints and the state blow hie without missial constraints and the state blow hie version is the program of the state state blow hie by the Republican National Committee. A statement issued late Tuesday on behalf of LL Gow. Molly Gray, Attor-ney General T.J. Donovan, state Senate er Jill Krowinski says Vermont has a strong biparrisan track record of mak-ing it easier for people to vote in the state.

strong updat sam taka techt och in mås-tig it easier for people to vote in the state. The GOP lawsuits are asking the courts to block noncilizen voting plans in Montpelier and Winosiki that were authorized by the Legislature earlier lis year. The lawsuits say the Vermont Constitution says voters must be U.S. citizens. "Voters in Montpelier and Winosiki cacees in their communities, and the geislature, after rigorous debate and deliberation, supported their ability to regulate their own local elections in this way," the statement said.

To place your ad.

call 1-800-234-7404

