Subject: Northern Pass pre-SEC meetings

Dear Mr. Honigberg, after the first meeting in Concord there was considerable dismay that whoever was in charge was hand-picking (censoring) which question cards were submitted to the moderator.

In addition, there were no opportunities for response when a question was evaded or answered in a misleading way.

Perhaps questions could be taken from the floor.

It would be good for the SEC process to avoid taint of bias from the start.
