

Say No to Northern Pass! The people of NH do not want it. It's not good for NH or the environment. Northern and Central NH's economy is based on tourism. Ugly towers and wires across the north country are not good for the state. Also, think about the environmental damage done up in Quebec by damming the rivers and building electrical infrastructure.

suhlman