

From: Kris pastoriza [<mailto:krispastoriza@gmail.com>]

Sent: Sunday, March 13, 2016 2:19 PM

To: Monroe, Pamela

Subject: question

Dear Pam, could the Northern Pass committee members make a statement on how intervenors with jobs should proceed with intervention; for example, how is a person with a job supposed to show up at a hearing during the day? And if freedom to do that is required, then the process of intervening discriminates against low-income employed people, and what is the SEC position on that?

Thank,

Kris