

Dear Mr. D'Allesandro,

Speaking as one of many people who would have this monstrosity buried on the road in front of our home, we can only conclude that your letter is entirely clueless. There is a perfectly viable route down Interstate 93 which imposes on few or no homeowners and would generate revenue for the State. Whatever Northern Pass is giving you, it's not worth it for us.

Russell & Lydia Cumbee
Franconia, NH