

SEC COMMENTS COLLECTION

SECDocket	2015-06 Northern Pass Transmission - Eversource
CommenterName	Judy Dillman
CommenterCity	Jamaica Plain, MA
DateReceived	05-17-2017

CommenterWords

New transmission lines should pass through lands already disturbed by human habitation or transportation. They should NOT be routed through areas that are primarily or nearly wild. Especially in the northeast, wild lands are in short supply and should not be sacrificed when very reasonable alternatives exist. If a road runs through it...a transmission line can too!