The applicant has failed to consider alternatives that would avoid or minimize impacts to New Hampshire, such as burying all 192 miles within already disturbed transportation corridors. There is no need to permanently scar 192 miles of New Hampshire's landscape by clear-cutting 40 new miles of right-of-way in Coos County, and building more than 1100 new steel lattice or monopole towers up to 160 feet high.

The rights of the 31 out of the 32 communities along the project's proposed path that have voted to oppose the project should also be considered.
