Why is this happening if the majority of the NH residents do NOT want it? When did government decide to STOP listening to it's citizens? People are starting to feel like they live in a dictatorship and not a democracy. This has already ruined multiple properties in my town, and forced us to consider leaving the state in 2 years when our daughter graduates. We came to this area for the trees, the close proximity to nature and all it entails. If I wanted to live in a city I'd have stayed in Boston.

We have sadly come to realize that our politicians do not listen to the people here in NH. Sad. Very sad, indeed. This was a beautiful state, but now it seems to want to change all that.

I see plenty opposed to this, but do not hold out much hope that our voices will suddenly be heard now. That isn't our political agenda these days. For the people? No, for the $ and the corporations that bring it. Shameful.
