Dear Pamela Monroe,

This isn't just about marring the landscape of our beautiful state, although that is a massive concern of mine.

I am deeply troubled by this: http://www.thesuburban.com/news/hydro-to-bury-million-cable-in-forest-stonewalls-ddo/article_1d12a85e-fc2d-5ec0-981d-a11624fc330e.html

$48 million to New England tax payers, for a blight on our state that we won't even see any of the benefits from? Absolutely not.

I am a lifelong New Englander and have just recently moved to NH. I am truly happy and proud to have made this state my home, it suits the lifestyle of myself and my family nicely. This goes against absolutely everything this state claims to value.

This is bad for our entire state. Whatever benefits may be had by this endeavor, we will not see.

Sincerely,
Nicole Campana
