Dear Pamela Monroe,

I am a resident of New Lo don, NH. If the unsightly Northern Pass went through New London I would fight its construction with my life. I would literally lie down in front of the bulldozers and go to jail opposing it. Therefore, why would I support the fact that Northern Pass will ruin several communities in other parts of New Hampshire. This entire process has been an undemocratic disgrace. New Hampshire citizens will never forgive or forget that certain interests destroyed their state by allowing this unsightly Tower project to be forced upon it.

Sincerely,
Susan Cusack
