Dear Pamela Monroe,

Don't sell our states beauty and wilderness down the river so southern New England can reap most the rewards. We have the most beautiful and heavily forested state in the country. I wouldn't trade that for anything and I don't want to see it whittled away. I love New Hampshire and I hate seeing/feeling like big business and other states have their hands in our pot and seemingly have more of a say as to the decisions that effect our state than the actual residents that live here. Be proud of the beauty of this state instead of dollars and cents.

Sincerely,
Taylor Walton and our future generations
